Subject: Norton Skate Park

Dear Mr. Fothergill,

Thank you for your letter about the half-pipe campaign. I do understand the concerns felt by local residents and I am all in favour of activities for young people. Certainly the skateboarding event at the Olympic was very inspiring. Of course the council has to look at its risks carefully and make a balanced decision but nevertheless they are aware of my concerns that the issue should be resolved.

I would be grateful if you could let me know how the meeting goes on Wednesday and whether anything positive results from it.

Kind regards,
